I understand that plagiarism in any form is a violation of Near East University Student Conduct Code and the policies of the Departments of English Language Teaching and English Language and Literature, and I am aware that it can result in failure of the class and academic sanctions. I realize that helping or knowingly allowing others to plagiarize involves me in plagiarism. Furthermore, I understand that any instance of plagiarism needs to be officially reported to the involved department.

I have been educated about the meaning of plagiarism and understand the terms 'plagiarism', 'quotation', 'paraphrase', and 'source acknowledgment'. In other words, I learned ways to avoid plagiarism by always acknowledging the source of any borrowed passage, sentence, or key idea that I use in my writing. I also know that I will put language copied from any source into quotation marks and acknowledge the author. If I paraphrase published language, I will give credit to the author, even if I change the words. I specifically know that copying words from the internet without crediting the source or buying an essay on-line constitute plagiarism.

I understand that if I plagiarize despite this agreement, I will receive an 'F' on the assignment and may be dropped from the course.

I am aware that my work may be checked through various plagiarism detection software (such as Ithenticate and turnitin) for originality.
