

PROF. DR. MUSTAFA KURT

Prof. Mustafa KURT was born in Akıncılar, one of the oldest settlements in Cyprus. After receiving his BA degree in Foreign Language Education from Middle East Technical University, Prof. Kurt completed his MA in English Language Education at Gazi University and his PhD in Curriculum and Language Instruction at Ankara University. His research interest is in teacher education, learning theories, educational technology, reflective acts, multiculturalism, multilingualism and language learning. Prof. Kurt has given workshops and lectures, conducted research and published articles on various topics pertaining to language teaching, literature and education.