Preface

This catalogue has been prepared with the purpose of enabling all our stakeholders to access detailed information about the undergraduate and graduate programs on English Language and Literature.

The catalogue comprises general information about our faculty and the programs offered by the faculty, its features, education period, and language of instruction, courses, internships, internship period, grading, admission requirements, and professional profile of graduates. We hope that this catalogue, which has been prepared with great effort, will provide the respective people, institutions, and organizations with adequate information about our program.

General Information about the Faculty

Near East University Faculty of Arts and Sciences is a distinguished educational ground offering quality education at national and international standards since the establishment of our university. The Department of English Language and Literature has the distinction of being the first department that started its educational life under the body of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences. Gradually other departments were opened under the body of the faculty. Currently the faculty houses 8 departments consisting of the Department of Turkish Language and Literature and the Department of Psychology opened in 1994, the Department of Mathematics opened in 2005-2006, the Department of Translation and Interpretation opened in 2009-2010, the Department of History and Geography and Turkish Preparatory School opened in 2013-2014, and the Department of Molecular Biology and Genetics opened in 2014-15.

Mission and Vision

With its competent academic staff and deep-rooted educational culture, the Faculty of Arts and Sciences, which comprises eight distinguished departments, adopts it as its fundamental objective to raise well-equipped individuals, who are capable to address the needs of the rapidly changing era. The mission of the faculty is to raise well-rounded, creative, critical thinking, problem-solving, and self-confident individuals, who can deal with challenges and provide reasonable solutions, and produce information through specific scientific studies for the benefit of the society and the world.

The Faculty works devotedly to empower its students to fulfil their academic and professional careers. The vision of the faculty is to continue to be the leading educational ground that raises professionally competent individuals, who can serve even in multilingual and multicultural environments, who are capable of thinking universally, embracing ethical values, and tracing innovation and developments in their fields.

Duration of the Program

- Undergraduate Program

This program is a Bachelor's degree program lasting 4 years corresponding to 8 academic semesters. The program consists of 52 courses comprising professional knowledge, field knowledge, general culture, and elective courses that correspond to 240 ECTS credits in total.

- Master's Degree Program

The Department of English Language and literature offers two different master's degree programs. Master's Degree programs comprise programs with thesis and without thesis. Students can take at least 2 and maximum 4 courses each semester. For master's program with thesis, students are required to take 7 courses that correspond to 21 credits, give a seminar, and write and defend a thesis. For Master's Degree programs without thesis, students are required to take 10 courses and conduct a research project.

Master's Degree Program with thesis consists of 4 academic semesters. A student is required to complete 7 courses (21 credits in total), the seminar, and the thesis successfully in order to be deemed worthy for graduation. The seminar and thesis are non-credit courses. Thesis and seminar can be completed in two academic semesters. A student is required to complete all the courses including the seminar successfully and achieved a cumulative graded point average of 3.00 over 4.00 in order to be deemed worthy for writing a thesis.

Master's Degree Program without thesis also consists of 2 years corresponding to 4 academic semesters. A student is required to complete 10 courses (30 credits) and the project successfully in order to be eligible for graduation. Courses can be taken with the project in the same term. Thus, a student has the opportunity to complete the non-thesis master's program in one and half (1.5) year corresponding to 3 academic semesters.

Two (2) courses are compulsory in master's programs offered by the Department of English Language and Literature. All other courses available in the program are electives. Students are provided with opportunity to acquire comprehensive knowledge and skills required to be specialized in the fields of their choices. Depending on their choices, students can be specialized in one of the following fields: Teaching English as a Foreign Language, Occupational Applications, Literature and Linguistics.

Prospective students, who apply for master's degree programs where the medium of instruction is English, are required to achieve at least a score corresponding to "C" in the NEU Foreign Language Proficiency Test (NPT) or achieve the points that are specified in the Near East University Graduate Education Regulation for foreign language examinations such as YÖKDİL, YDS, e-YDS, KPDS, and ÜDS that held by the Student Selection and Placement Center, or for TOEFL and IELTS exams that are internationally valid.

- Doctorate Degree Program

The Department of English Language and Literature does not offer PhD (Doctorate) programs.

Qualification Level

This is a Bachelor's Degree program based on full-time education. The program consists of 40% distance education and 60% face-to-face education.

The medium of instruction is English.

General Information about the Program and Education - Teaching Methods

The Department of English Language and Literature, which is one of the first departments that opened with the Department of English Language Teaching under the body of Near East University, is a well-rooted educational institution offering quality education. The first Chairperson of the department was Prof. Dr. Seyfi Karabaş. Since 2003, Prof. Dr. Mustafa Kurt is the Chairperson of the department. The Department, which is the leading gear of English language and literature education, offers undergraduate education lasting 4 years corresponding to 8 academic years. The program consists of 52 courses corresponding to 139 local credits and 240 ECTS credits.

The department was accredited by Pearson Edexcel in 2016 and by the Association for the Evaluation and Accreditation of the Faculties of Science, Literature, Science and Literature, Language, and History-Geography (FEDEK) in 2018-2019 academic year. Besides, the department offers master's degree programs.

The mission of the Department of English Language and Literature is to sustain effective teaching and learning and help students develop their skills not only in mastering the language and using it effectively but also in advanced interpretation, reading and writing through high-level study of literature. To develop the students' cultural awareness, ensure a deep level of critical and creative thinking on English language and literature and open up new horizons for students constitute the core of this mission.

Objectives

The Department of English Language and Literature is committed to enhancing the intellectual and cultural development of its students by promoting the study and interpretation of literature and literary genres. The department is dedicated to provide the students with not only a solid knowledge on a variety of literary genres such as novel, criticism, and poems, and the works of great canonical authors like Shakespeare as well as the contemporary ones but also skills required to relate these works with their literary, historical, social and intellectual contexts. Through extensive language and literature studies, we aim to foster our students to develop their skills of analysis, interpretation and self-expression and gain a personal critical perspective and a sense of intellectual independence. Considering the crucial role of understanding larger themes and ideas evoked by the literary works and genres in analyzing and interpreting, our department aims to equip our students with general skills including the ability to read closely and recognize and apply approaches in contemporary literary theory, and enable them to develop their analytical and communication skills required to present literary critical arguments and precious interpretation accurately, both orally and in writing.

Goals

To followings are among our specific goals;

- 1) Ensuring and maintaining close reading in a variety formats, styles, and modes, pointing out the crucial role of close reading in developing a deep understanding and a precise interpretation of a literary works and genres.
- 2) Ensuring the students' acquaintance with major literary works, genres, periods and critical approaches to English Literature.
- 3) Enabling students to develop effective and creative writing skills and a writing style appropriate to the content, context, and nature of the topic.
- 4) Ensuring the development and execution of research projects.
- 5) Enabling the students to comprehend and express the relations between culture, history and texts.

Qualification Awarded

Our graduates are awarded with a Bachelor's degree diploma (Bachelor of Arts (BA) diploma as defined in the Bologna system).

Education Level

In order to maintain and enhance the quality of education we provided and continue to be the driving force of quality in English language and literature education, our department adopts Bologna process and provides services in the line with the quality standards and principles published in 2005 report of the European Association for Quality Assurance in Higher Education (ENQA). Besides, the English Language and Literature undergraduate program has been designed in accordance with the 6th Level (undergraduate) qualifications framework created as a result of the editing studies on the Higher Education Qualifications Framework (HEQF) conducted by the Higher Education Planning, Evaluation, Accreditation and Coordination Council of the Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus. ## Registration and Admission Requirements

- Registration and Admission Requirements for the students, who are citizens of the Republic of Turkey

Students are required to have been placed in 4-year programs or 2-year programs offered by our university as a result of achieving sufficient points in the university entrance exam held by the Student Selection and Placement Centre (ÖSYM). It is sufficient to get a base score or more from any of the YGS score types in the university entrance exam organized by ÖSYM to prefer the departments that accept students with special talent exam.

Documents required for the registration in the programs offered by the Near East University:

- Original high school diploma
  - 12 passport size photos
  - Copy of identity card
  - Certificate of residence
  - LYS document (internet printout)
- Registration and Admission Requirements for TR Citizen Students Graduated from a High School Abroad

Students, who are citizens of the Republic of Turkey and completed their secondary education abroad (except Turkey and TRNC) can apply for registration to our university with a high school diploma equivalency certificate that they can receive from the Ministry of National Education without interrupting their education.

- Registration and Admission Requirements for Students who are TRNC Citizens

In order to be deemed eligible for admission to the undergraduate and associate degree programs offered by the faculties, departments, and schools affiliated with the Near East University, TRNC citizen students, who have already graduated from TRNC high schools or will graduate from TRNC high schools in the relevant academic year, are required to take the Student Placement and Scholarship Grading Examination. Each student is placed to one of his/her choices by taking into consideration his/her exam result and the set quota. Further information can be obtained from the Registrar's Office of the Near East University.

Documents Required During Registration

- Copy of the Identity Card
- Original High School Diploma or original graduation certificate
- 12 passport size photos
- Pre-registration + social activity fee per semester

Candidates on the reserve list are entitled to register instead of candidates who fail to register until the specified dates.

Student Development and Success

The program offered by the Department of English Language and Literature is subject to graduation. The education period is normally 8 semesters corresponding to 4 academic years. Students are required to achieve a cumulative point average of at least 2.00 over 4.00 in order to complete their program successfully in time. Students are required to achieve "Minimal Cumulative Grade Point Averages (CGPA)" indicated below in order to continue their education at the department.

At the end of the fourth semester	1.50
At the end of the fifth semester	1.60
At the end of the sixth semester	1.70
At the end of the seventh semester	1.80
At the end of the eighth semester or later periods	2.00

Students, who fail to achieve the minimum cumulative grade point average (CGPA) specified above for each semester, are notified with an "Academic Inadequacy Warning". This warning means that if the student fails to achieve the specified cumulative grade point average in the next semester again, he/she will not be allowed to continue his education. Students, who receive the academic inadequacy warning, can enroll in courses up to 60% of the required credit specified for the new semester. If the student, who received a warning, wants to take an elective course that he/she received DD or DC before, he/she can repeat the same elective course or drop it and select another elective course equivalent to the previous one. In such cases, that course is not considered a 'new course'.

The Department of English Language and Literature also provides its students with academic advising services. Each student in the department has an academic advisor, who assists him/her in academic and non-academic matters throughout his/her university life. The academic advisor monitors and guides the course choices of the student and is in charge to help the student find reasonable solutions for his/her academic problems.

In order to ensure student development and success, to enable them to clarify and ask about the course content and get ideas and some guidance about their studies and investigations, we provide students with office hour opportunities. For 5 hours a week, each lecturer assists students through office hours. The purpose of office hours is to provide students with maximum assistance and guidance regarding their courses and research, to enable them to be more successful in their studies and to increase their performance.

Challenges that students experienced in learning are identified by the Evaluation Questionnaire held at the end of each semester. Evaluation questionnaires are examined by the department's management, and students' learning challenges are resolved with the measures taken.

Graduation Requirements

The undergraduate program offered by the Department of English Language and Literature is subject to graduation. For graduation, a student is required to complete all credits successfully by taking compulsory, common and elective courses and achieve at least a 2.00 cumulative GPA over 4.00. The program consists of 52 courses corresponding to 139 local credits.

The Near East University credit system is a grading system organized according to theoretical and practical courses. (<https://neu.edu.tr/wp-content/uploads/2015/10/10/ydu-on-lisans-lisans-egitim-ogretim-yonetmeligi-29.06.2020.pdf>).

Each local grade has its equivalent ECTS grade which makes it easier to transfer the grades of mobility periods of students. 139 local credits correspond to 240 ECTS credits. European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System (ECTS) is a credit system designed to facilitate student mobility between higher education institutions. ECTS allows credits taken at one higher education institution to be counted towards a qualification studied for at another. Thus, the ECTS credits that a student takes at another higher education institution during mobility are counted for the qualification and added to the credits that he/she takes from the courses offered by his/her own university. ECTS is one of the cornerstones of the Bologna Process that can be used as a tool for planning, reviewing, and enhancing the flexibility and transparency of study programs for students. (http://ec.europa.eu/education/ects/ects\_en.htm)

A student is required to be successful in all courses and achieve at least 2.00 cumulative GPA over 4.00 to be entitled for graduation.

Graduation Exams

Graduation exams allow a student, who has completed all his/her courses successfully but couldn't achieve at least a CGPA of 2.00 required for graduation, to retake up to three courses to achieve better grades and boost his/her cumulative GPA. The exam fee paid for each course changes each semester.

Graduation ceremony

Students who have completed all their courses and have a GPA of 2.00 or over are entitled to graduation. Graduation ceremonies are held twice a year, separately for each semester. Depending on his/her own will, a student can buy or hire a gown for the graduation ceremony. The rental cost of the graduation gown is determined by the Near East Bank every semester. The students, who rent their gowns, will be refunded provided that they bring the rental receipt back to the bank after the graduation ceremony.

The Conversion of the United States credits to the ECTS credits

The most important difference between ECTS and the US credit system is that ECTS is based on student workload, while the US credit system is based on the student's theoretical and practical contact hours during one semester. 1 US credit is equal to 1.67 ECTS credits; however, the conversion rate from the American credits to the ECTS credits may vary in different universities in the U.S.

  - e) The central placement score of a student, who fails to achieve the grades specified in the paragraph (d), must be equal to or higher than the base point of the diploma program he/she wants to admit through lateral transfer.
  - f) For admission to formal education programs from distance and open education programs through lateral transfer (except for admission without having an examination within the scope of the Second University), a student is required to have at least 80/100 Cumulative GPA or higher; or his/her central placement score achieved in the year he/she enrolled in the program must be equal to or higher than the base point of the diploma program of the university that he/she wants to admit through lateral transfer

2. A student is required to meet specific conditions and be successful in the special talent exam for admission to diploma programs that accept students with a special talent exam from diploma programs that accept students with ÖSYS

Application Requirements for Lateral Transfer within the University

Students applying for lateral transfer within the University are required to meet the following conditions;

- a) Having been enrolled in an equivalent diploma program at the time of application, to have completed at least two semesters of the undergraduate degree programs (English Preparatory School period is ignored)
- b) To have received no disciplinary punishment during their education
- c) Not to have a semester/year loss (except suspended enrollment)
- d) Having a cumulative point average of at least 2.00 over 4.00
- e) Students applying for lateral transfer between the same level diploma programs that accept students with different central placement score types within the body of the University are required to have achieved a central placement score (as of the year they took the central placement exam) not less than the lowest base score required for admission to the diploma programs of other universities in the country, which are equivalent to the diploma program they apply for.
- f) For the lateral transfer to diploma programs within the University that accept students with special talent exams, a student is required to be successful in the special talent exam, and meet the other conditions.

Application Requirements for Lateral Transfer from Higher Education Institutions Abroad

Students applying for admission through lateral transfer to our university from higher education institutions abroad are required to meet the following conditions;

- a) The higher education institution, where the student receives education abroad, is required to have been approved by the Council of Higher Education
- b) Approval or acceptance of the equivalency of the program that the student studies to the diploma program, which the student applies for admission through lateral transfer, by the respective faculty/higher education institution; to have completed at least one

- semester for associate degree (at least two for annual education programs) and at least two semesters for undergraduate degree in the program in which the student is enrolled
- c) The minimum scores achieved by students studying abroad in the exams held by the Student Selection and Placement Center (ÖSYM), or exams and scores that are accepted as equivalent to these by ÖSYM are announced by ÖSYM and taken into account while evaluating students' applications for admission through lateral transfer. Candidates are required to achieve the determined scores, meet the other conditions, and have the necessary documents
  - d) Having at least a cumulative GPA of 2.00 over 4.00 or 60 out of 100 points, or an equivalent score accepted by the respective unit's authorized committees
  - e) Having no disciplinary punishment during the education process

Lateral Transfer with Central Placement Score

- 1) If the student's ÖSYM central placement score, as of the year he/she took the exam and placed in the program, is equal to or higher than the base point of the diploma program that he/she wants to admit through lateral transfer, he/she can apply for lateral transfer including the preparatory class.
- 2) To be eligible for admission through lateral transfer, the student is required to meet the other conditions determined by the Council of Higher Education, apart from the base score condition.
- 3) Students, who want to admit a diploma program with central placement score through lateral transfer, are placed within the set quota. If the number of students applying for lateral transfer is more than the set quota, beginning from the top scoring student, students' applications for lateral transfer are accepted within the number the set quota.

Lateral Transfer in special cases

- 1) Students studying in countries where the Higher Education Council determines that education is unsustainable due to violence and humanitarian crisis can apply for lateral transfer, provided that they meet the conditions determined by the Higher Education Council.

- 2) For admission through lateral transfer, applications are required to be submitted with the original or the certified copies of the following documents;
  - a) An officially approved document (transcript) showing all the courses that the applicant student has received at the higher education institution he/she will leave, the grades he/she has taken from these courses and the overall grade point average
  - b) Course contents of the courses received in the frame of the program
  - c) A document proving that the applicant student has not received any disciplinary penalty
  - d) ÖSYS result document, (A document showing the result of the exams determined by the Council of Higher Education for those who have started their education abroad)
  - e) Other documents specified in the announcement.

Application

- 1) The dates specified for application for lateral transfer between institutions are announced by the Near East University on the website. Applications are required to be submitted to the relevant unit by hand or by mail, with all documents completed. Those who do not meet the conditions or whose applications are not evaluated due to missing documents will not be notified additionally.
- 2) Quotas set for lateral transfer within the university are announced on the website of the relevant unit. Applications for lateral transfer between the units and departments/programs of the university are submitted to the relevant unit personally or by mail within the framework of the requirements that are announced.

Evaluation

- 1) Applications are evaluated by the relevant unit within the framework of the announced conditions. Applications of candidates who do not meet the conditions are rejected.
- 2) Applications are evaluated by the Board of Directors of the relevant unit in line with the provisions specified in the respective Regulation.
- 3) Starting from the top scoring student, students are placed within the the set quota. Besides, reserved candidates corresponding to the number of set quota are determined and announced.

Announcement of the results

Results of the applications for admission through lateral transfer and enrollment dates are announced on the website of the respective unit.

Exemption and adjustment procedures

- 1) The exemption and adjustment procedures of the students, whose applications for lateral transfer are accepted, for the courses previously taken at higher education institution are carried out in accordance with the Near East University Exemption and Adjustment rules.
- 2) The courses taken and completed successfully in the previous diploma program by the student, who admits through lateral program, and the grades regarding these courses are adjusted accordingly with the NEU grading system and recorded on the transcript by his/her advisor at the relevant department.

Maximum education period

- 1) For admission through lateral transfer, the maximum education period is calculated as follow;
  - a) For students admitting to a different program from his/her previous program through central placement score, the period of the class, to which he/she has been accepted, is subtracted from the maximum education period.
  - b) For students admitting through lateral transfer other than central placement score, the period spent at the other higher education institution is taken into consideration while calculating the maximum education period.
- 2) The total period cannot exceed the maximum period specified in the respective Regulation.

Exams, Evaluation and Grading

The teaching methods and the assessment and-evaluation techniques used for each course in the program, the connection between teaching and learning processes, and the connections between the objectives of each course and the learning experiences provided in the course are followed from the syllabus.

An Academic year consists of two semesters, including fall and spring terms. A midterm and a final exam are held for each semester on the dates specified in the academic calendar. The format of the exams may differ according to the course. Therefore, if the course is a performance-based one, the lecturer can ask students to make a presentation, or prepare a project, or do an application assignment instead of taking the final exam. In such a case, presentations, projects, and application assignments are considered as the final exam. After the presentation and project submission, students generally receive feedback about their performances during the office hours on one-on-one basis. Assignments submitted later than the determined date are generally not accepted. If a student submits his/her homework late, it is the instructor's discretion to accept or reject it, or lower the grade of the student's assignment.

Success status as a result of the evaluation

A student's success in any course is evaluated in line with his studies and performance and appraised with a letter grade by taking the grading system into consideration. Evaluation can be made through written exams, presentations, project assignments, and applications, all of which are calculated with different weights within themselves. A student's success is evaluated in the frame of the grading system given below.

 NEAR EAST UNIVERSITY
GRADE BREAKDOWN
POINTS	LETTER GRADE	CREDIT
90-100	AA	4
85-89	BA	3.5
80-84	BB	3
75-79	CB	2.5
70-74	CC	2
60-69	DC	1.5
50-59	DD	1
0-49	FF	0

In addition to the letter grades given in the table above, the following letter grades are used for evaluating the student's success.

Letter grade S (Satisfactory) is given to students who are successful in non-credited courses. U (Unsatisfactory) is given to students who are unsuccessful in non-credited courses. Grade I (Incomplete) is given to students who can't meet all the course requirements until the deadline of the relevant semester due to a valid justification that is accepted by the instructor. Students, who receive a letter grade "I", must complete their missing course studies, exams, and assignments and receive a letter grade not later than two weeks following the submission of the grades of the relevant semester. Otherwise, grade I will automatically turn into grade FF at the beginning of the next semester if the students fail to meet the course requirements.

Occupational Profile of Graduates

Those who graduate from the Department of English Language and Literature can be employed as teachers in public and private educational institutions such as preschools, primary schools, middle schools or high schools. In addition to these, they can teach in private teaching institutions, language centers, and serve as instructors at higher education institutions. Besides, they can pursue an academic career by continuing their education in graduate programs.

8. INFORMATION ON THE NATIONAL HIGHER EDUCATION SYSTEM

The basic structure of the North Cyprus Education System consists of four main stages as pre-school education, primary education, secondary education and higher education.

Pre-school education consists of non-compulsory programs whereas primary education is a compulsory 8 year program for all children beginning from the age of 6. The secondary education system includes “General High Schools” and “Vocational and Technical High Schools”.

The Higher Education System in North Cyprus is regulated by the Higher Education Planning, Evaluation, Accreditation and Coordination Council (Yükseköğretim Planlama, Denetleme, Akreditasyon ve Koordinasyon Kurulu – YÖDAK). Established in 1988, the Council regulates the activities of higher education institutions with respect to research, governing, planning and organization. The higher education institutions are established within the framework of the Higher Education Law. All programs of higher education should be accredited by YÖDAK.

Higher education in North Cyprus comprises all post-secondary higher education programmes, consisting of short, first, second, and third cycle degrees in terms of terminology of the Bologna Process. The structure of North Cyprus higher education degrees is based on a two-tier system, except for dentistry, pharmacy, medicine and veterinary medicine programmes which have a one-tier system. The duration of these one-tier programmes is five years except for medicine which lasts six years. The qualifications in these one-tier programmes are equivalent to the first cycle (bachelor degree) plus secondary cycle (master degree) degree. Undergraduate level of study consists of short cycle (associate degree) - (önlisans derecesi) and first cycle (bachelor degree) - (lisans derecesi) degrees which are awarded after the successful completion of full-time two-year and four-year study programmes, respectively.

Graduate level of study consists of second cycle (master degree) – (yüksek lisans derecesi) and third cycle (doctorate) – (doktora derecesi) degree programmes. Second cycle is divided into two sub-types named as master without thesis and master with thesis. Master programmes without thesis consists of courses and semester project. The master programmes with a thesis consist of courses, a seminar, and a thesis. Third cycle (doctorate) degree programmes consist of completion of courses, passing a qualifying examination and a doctoral thesis. Specializations in dentistry, accepted as equivalent to third cycle programmes are carried out within the faculties of dentistry. Specialization in medicine, accepted as equivalent to third cycle programmes are carried out within the faculties of medicine, and university hospitals and training hospitals operated by the Ministry of Health.

Universities consist of graduate schools (institutes) offering second cycle (master degree) and third cycle (doctorate) degree programmes, faculties offering first cycle (bachelor degree) programmes, four-year higher schools offering first cycle (bachelor degree) degree programmes with a vocational emphasis and two-year vocational schools offering short cycle (associate degree) degree programmes of strictly vocational nature.

Second cycle degree holders may apply to third cycle programmes if their performance at the first cycle degree level is exceptionally high and their national central Graduate Education Entrance Examination (ALES) score is also high and their application is approved. The doctoral degree is conferred subject to at least one publication in a cited and refereed journal.
