

Ali Hayat

Born in Lahore (Pakistan) in 1984, He received his high school diploma through an external exam. And studied at the University of Punjab for his first B.A. degree in English Literature in 2008. Moving on, he did his second bachelor's in library and information sciences in 2011. And he was the POINEER intern who did his internship at the Children Library Complex, which is the one and only specific library for children in Pakistan. However, after his first degree, he got an opportunity to get training with a British Council trainer in his city (Lahore), where he had learned language teaching skills at Lingua Speaks from 2009 to 2010. Furthermore, he joined Lahore Leads University for his Master's program in Linguistics and Literature. He got his second master's degree with thesis work on phonological patterns in 2015. Between 2010 and 2017, he taught in many private organizations, including PICIT Computer College, where he was a spoken English teacher for more than 4 years. However, his work experience mainly revolves around international tests such as IELTS, PTE, Duolingo, etc. After that, he became a part of Cyprus International University for his second master's program in English language teaching in 2021, which he recently completed. Besides this, he was appointed as an English lecturer at English Preparatory School in 2022, and now he is in the English Language Teaching Department as an English lecturer.