

EMETE TÚRKER

Born in England, Emete's native language is English. She studied in England and attained 12 G.C.S.E qualifications there. Miss Emete came to Cyprus in 2007 and extended her studies to English Language Teaching at Near East University and graduated successfully. After graduation, she worked in several private schools for seven years as an English Teacher for all age groups. Following this, she started working as an English teacher at Near East English Preparatory School in 2020. At present, she is working at Near East University as an English Lecturer and Academic advisor.