

Near East University
Departments of English
Elective Courses /2026-27 Fall Semester

Year	Translation & Interpretation (ETI)	English Language & Literature (ELL)	English Language Teaching (ELT)
1st Year	GEC205 English in Mass Media or GEC151 World Englishes and Culture	–	FLT121 Academic and Educational Ethics or FLT131 Mindfulness in the Classroom
2nd Year	GEC295 Gender and Translation or GCE459 World Literature in English	GEC151 World Englishes and Culture or GEC123 Effective Communication and Public Speaking	FLT221 Approaches in ELT or FLT231 CEFR and its Applications in ELT
3rd Year	GEC296 Contemporary Turkish Literature. or GCE457 Shakespeare: Histories and Comedies	1st elective: GEC332 Greek Mythology or Discourse Analysis 2nd elective: GEC367 French Culture and Civilization or GEC163 Publishing and Editing	GEC151 World Englishes and Culture or GEC123 Effective Communication and Public Speaking
4th Year	GEC345 Sociolinguistics or GCE227 Distance Education or GEC332 Greek Mythology	1st elective: GEC345 Sociolinguistics or GEC295 Gender and Translation 2nd elective: GCE227 Distance Education or GEC332 Greek Mythology	1st elective: GEC417 Lifelong Learning or GCE227 Distance Education 2nd elective: GEC151 World Englishes and Culture or GCE457 Shakespeare: Histories & Comedies 3rd elective: DEL203 Discourse Analysis or GEC367 French Culture and Civilization 4th Elective FLT421 Drama in ELT or FLT431 Promoting 21 st Century Skills

- Where multiple elective courses are listed under the same elective group, students must choose only one course from that group.
- Please check the course credits carefully before making your selection.
- If you are unsure about your course selection, please consult your academic advisor before completing your registration.